Pottery from England

While he was in England recently Mr. F. Haenggi saw an outstanding exhibition at the Potters' Guild in London. This resulted in his selecting works by leading English potters. The pottery, particularly noted for its purity of shape and perfection of glazes, is now on display in Gallery 101's ground floor premises. Works to be seen are those of, among others:—Robin Welch, David Leach, Ray Finch, Bernard Rooke, Joanna Constantinidis, Rosemary Wren, George Rainer.
